For the Month of May: Maggie's House is named after Maggie Dittman, who died at the age of 2 from baby shaking syndrome, at the hands of her babysitter.

The center's mission is to serve and advocate for child victims of abuse through education, prevention, intervention, and recovery using a multi-disciplinary approach.

This approach allows for several agencies like Child Protective Services, and Investigators to collaborate together, and avoid revictimizing the child during the multiple investigations.
